THE RISK

Risk management and then, of all the crises derived from it, is an absolute and obvious need for Bari Mediterraneo that, like any other business, want to maintain its economic life and balanced. In any business activity are risk factors, they may have several causes and can threaten property and profits. The entrepreneur, from the beginning is aware of the so-called "risk business", namely those that he chooses to run for their will and that, according to the management, they can lead to profits or losses. Many times, however, discuss the risks it is to speak exclusively of pure risks, namely those that exist for reasons beyond its control and that may only generate losses. The two areas just mentioned are, however, two sides of the same coin because, not only are both concerned with events with the ability to affect the balance of the company but also, the presence of one or the other case, can create situations interdependent.

SPECIAL SERVICES

ENVIRONMENTAL RISKS

The recent law of 22 May 2015 has significantly changed and redefined the already stiff Italian panorama of the " Eco - crime ". The current arrangement provides for new crimes of environmental pollution, death or injury to the latter, environmental disaste, traffic and abandonment of high material radioactivity, prevention and control of non-reclamation.

AVIATION COVERS

The aviation industry and aerospace, transportation responsible for an increasing number of passengers and goods, are among the sectors with the highest absolute risk, even with explicit reference to new legislation on the environment.

Services for risk management we structured in collaboration with qualified partners are actually able to respond adequately to the peculiar needs of the entire sector (jet super lightweight, flag carriers, regional airports, satellite services, aerospace industry).

WEATHER COVERS

Many activities, particularly tourism, suffer the consequences of bad weather conditions. Not only extreme or catastrophic events but also adverse weather conditions, other than those you hope or expectations, determine significant economic losses. The Policy Weather thus guarantees the insured coverage for lost revenues caused by poor weather conditions over the course of its business.

CYBER RISKS

Nowadays Cyber Risk represent one of the most difficult threats to meet and can generate economic and extremely negative image given to businesses .
